MRS. ZELLA C. HOBSON KILLED IN MOTOR ACCIDENT

Funeral Services Thursday Afternoon
At Forest Lawn

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Cemetery, for Mrs. Zella C. Hobson, who died last week of injuries received when the automobile in which the family of six were driving to their ranch near Acton, ran into a cow and turned off into the canyon.

Her husband and the four children were cut, but not seriously injured. Mrs. Hobson died an hour after the accident, while being rushed to aid. The funeral was postponed until her mother could come from Missouri. Mrs. Hobson was 28 years old. The Scovern-Letton-Frey Company had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. ANDREW MAREK PASSES

The funeral services for Mrs. Andrew Marek, who passed away after short illness on Saturday morning, July 20th, were conducted Monday afternoon at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Rev. James O'Neill of the Holy Family Church, officiating.

The Marek family have resided in Tropico for the past nine years, with the exception of some months recently which were spent near Barstow. Besides her husband, she leaves three small children, Alvin, Mary-Anna and Andrew, to mourn her.

Many beautiful floral offerings spoke of the esteem in which Mrs. Marek was held, and the many friends

"MINE OWN"

By Editor of "The Californians"
(With Apology to John Burroughs)

Serene I quest my Holy Grail
By lights that flash now and again.
Not mine to heed how I may fail
To keep along the beaten trail
Trod by most other sons of men.

I close mine eyes to see the way
My steady footsteps sure must tread;
Not mine to doubt, or feel dismay—
Mine to fare forth, and boldly say
The thoughts that in my soul are bred.

I care not where—so I am free
To tread the way that HE has trod.
By light from neither land or sea
I know God-things belong to me;
And that I, too, belong to God.

What then is mine I needs must find
Along or near my only trail;
Or slow, or fine, the mills may grind
The gods of God are ever kind,
And lure me to my Holy Grail.

L'Envoi

And what is that—my Holy Grail,
Which with the eyes of faith I see?
It is the hope of ALL Mankind—
The Quest we all will one day find—
The long-sought WORLD DEMOCRACY.

She leaves a mother, Mrs. L. L. Cushing, a sister, Mrs. H. Eckstein, and her brother, Chas. A., to mourn her departure.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. JOHN HOLLOWAY

Mrs. John Hollway, of 1435 Sycamore avenue, died very suddenly early last Monday morning. She had been apparently in her usual good health, when she retired Sunday evening, but awakened her husband about midnight and asked him to get a light, but death came almost at once.

Mrs. Hollway has been a resident of Glendale some seven years, and has many friends, who mourn her death and extend their sympathy to the bereaved husband.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Little Church of the Flowers, conducted by Rev. Pierce of Los Angeles, and burial made in beautiful Forest Lawn Cemetery, Scovern-Letton-Frey in charge.

All you are asked to do is to buy only necessary things and then loan—not give—your savings to the Government, to help it fight your war.

Phillip D. Wilson, formerly a popular newspaper man of Los Angeles, for six years Secretary of the Los Angeles Realty Board and well known throughout the state in realty circles, has announced his candidacy as a Republican for Member of the State Board of Equalization from the Fourth District, at the primaries August 27th next.

Voters at the coming primary should not overlook the name of James W. Reagan, candidate for Congress from the Ninth District. Mr. Reagan stands a foremost business administration candidate. He has demonstrated his ability by his work on the "County Flood Control," as well as on several trips on which he was sent to Washington by our Board of Supervisors. His name will appear on the Republican and Democratic tickets at the primary.

In a statement sent to his headquarters in Los Angeles, Mr. Woolwine, who is now touring the Northern part of the State, said: "My supporters may feel greatly encouraged by the fact that Mr. Rolph has announced his intention of seeking the Republican and Democratic nominations. Mr. Rolph is, of course, a Republican, but there is no denying that he has a non-partisan following in San Francisco. It is generally admitted that he will draw from the Ieney strength in the Bay City. This means, naturally, that my candidacy will benefit. I find that the Democrats in the Central section of California feel as the Democrats in southern California do: that the Democrats should nominate a DEMOCRAT for governor.

Easy to buy, convenient to handle, no red tape—Get a WAR-SAVING TAMP to-day.

INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY

This war is to be won not by one man or one thousand men or one million men, or one million people. It is to be won by the united efforts of the individuals of many nations.

Every American citizen has an individual duty to perform, an individual share of the responsibility. The more powerful and effective the American forces are, the shorter will be the war, and the shorter the war the fewer lives lost, the greater the number of American soldiers who will return home victorious.

Every American who economizes in consumption of material, who increases production, who saves and lends savings to the Government, does something to help win the war.

WILL YOU VOTE AT THE PRIMARY AUGUST 27TH?

You may want to, but if, when you registered, you declined to state what party you belonged to, or affiliated with, you can not do so.

Only those who stated their party affiliations can vote, except for independent candidates, at the August primary, which nominates, and in some cases may elect the candidates.

You can vote next November, no matter how you registered, but you will have to vote for candidates whom somebody else placed in nomination.

If you did not give your "party affiliation" when you registered, it is not too late yet to correct your mistake. Go before any of the Registration Deputies and sign the necessary statement, and you will then be in a position to vote on August 27th and express your preference as to whom the candidates at the November election shall be.

Efficiency means trading nearest to home.

SPEAKER CLARK AFFIRMS THE LOYAL WORK OF RANDALL

Washington, July 26, 1918.—Speaker Champ Clark today sent the following telegram to Los Angeles political leaders:

"I hope that no one in California will be deceived by the opponents of Congressman Randall in the coming election, who claim that he has voted against war measures. He has earnestly and consistently supported the war program of the administration ever since war was declared, and he has loyally stood by the present organization of the House of Representatives.

CHAMP CLARK.

EXIT HOLLYWOOD INQUIRER. ENTER: HOLLY LEAVES

The Hollywood Inquirer now comes to us in "magazine form," 32 pages, an attractive front piece, mechanically as well as editorially "over the top." It is published every Saturday by O. M. Donaldson, and deserves the united support of the Hollywood section.

A strong editorial entitled the "Hollywood Spirit" in which the continuance of Hollywood's individuality is urged, although a part of Los Angeles, could be used with equal force by the Herald. Although Tropico is now a part of Glendale, yet that is no reason why we should give up our individuality. Hollywood is still Hollywood, Van Nuys is still Van Nuys, as well as other communities which have been annexed to Los Angeles, yet still retain their individual names.

Personally, the name "Tropico" stands for this community, and we hope to have it perpetuated, in spite of the frantic haste of a few to obliterate it entirely.

JOHN ROBERT WHITE FOR ASSEMBLYMAN

John Robert White has filed his petition for the office of Assemblyman of this, the 61st Assembly District. Mr. White is one of our best-known citizens of Glendale, having at one time been the Chairman of the Board of Trustees. When in office here his work was always well done, and he made a good city official. When Mr. White represents us in the Assembly we believe that he will give us the kind of representation that we ought to have.

As is the usual case with business men, Mr. White was reluctant to run for office. He was finally persuaded by his friends here to make the race, and now that he is in it, he is out to win. Mr. White is being strongly supported.

JOHN C. CLINE

Clean Government League Endorses Present Sheriff

"Vigorous and impartial enforcement of the anti-liquor laws."

This is one of the most important planks in the platform of John C. Cline, who is a candidate for re-election.

In making this pledge, Sheriff Cline is offering no empty campaign promise, for his record as sheriff during the last four years shows he has waged an unceasing campaign against violators of the liquor laws.

Through his efforts, the "Blind Pig" has practically been eliminated from Los Angeles County. This has been accomplished despite many handicaps. Although the temptation to operate "Blind Pigs" has increased since the new Los Angeles liquor law went into effect, the sheriff has been compelled to conduct his campaign against these secret traffickers in liquor without any special fund for the purpose.

For a limited period a county fund was allowed him to obtain evidence against "Blind Pigs," but when this was discontinued he was forced to proceed without the financial aid which is so badly needed to secure evidence which will result in convictions.

Incumbent

Justice of the Peace, Burbank Township. A resident of Glendale for 13 years. Court room at 409 South Brand Boulevard, Glendale. He stands squarely on his past Record.

Primary Election August 27th. 1918.

Efficiency Commission has lauded the work of Sheriff Cline and is co-operating with him to have the legislature grant a special fund which will be devoted to banishing the "Blind Pigs" from Los Angeles County.

In recognition of the work that Sheriff Cline has done in the enforcement of the anti-liquor laws, the Clean Government League of Los Angeles, after careful consideration of the situation throughout the county unanimously indorsed the sheriff and passed the following resolutions:

"WHEREAS, John C. Cline has for four years been at the head and in control of the Sheriff's office of Los Angeles County, and

WHEREAS, during the time he has shown himself in favor of a clean, moral city and county, and opposed to any policy that would lead to political graft or moral corruption, and

WHEREAS, said John C. Cline has announced that he is a candidate for re-election to the office of Sheriff of Los Angeles County,

THEREFORE, believing that to support John C. Cline the Clean Government League would be advancing the purposes for which it was organized, we do hereby pledge our support as an organization to do all in our power to insure the re-election of Sheriff Cline."

This resolution was officially signed by the Rev. George Hargrave MacNeill, as president, and the Rev. E. E. Haring as secretary. Dr. MacNeill is also president of the International White Cross Society and Dr. Haring is vice president and chairman of the Department of Religious Work in the same organization.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED IN 1918?

If not, get busy, and hunt up any one of the different registration dep'ties, and put yourself in "good standing" on the big book that contains the names of Los Angeles County's qualified voters.

The registration books will close July 27th.

Sugar Saving in Cooking

1. Bake apples or pears with a little water for several hours, until a rich syrup forms. If more sweetening is desired add a little honey or molasses.

2. Cook dried prunes without sugar in the water in which they were soaked until liquid is almost boiled away. If more juice is wanted add water to the syrup. The long, slow cooking develops a rich flavor, and the addition of sugar is unnecessary.

3. Substitute syrup or honey for sugar in cake. One cup of syrup or honey will take the place of one cup of sugar and one-fourth of a cup of liquid. In almost any cake recipe the syrup or honey may be used for one-half of the sugar.

Sugarless Recipes

MAPLE CREAMS

3 cups maple syrup
1 pound grated maple sugar
1 cup thick, sweet cream

Method

Boil the sugar and cream to "soft ball" stage; beat with a silver fork until of the consistency of very thick cream. Pour into greased tins and when cool, cut into squares. A cup of chopped nuts may be added, when the mixture begins to thicken.

(Crisco may be substituted for butter in all candy recipes, except the Butter Scotch and Taffy, but the amount must be reduced about one-fifth.)

BUCKWHEAT PUDDING

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup buckwheat flour
2 cups hot milk
4 tablespoons honey
1 teaspoon salt
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon vanilla
2 tart apples
3 tablespoons corn syrup
1 tablespoon butter
Nutmeg

Sift the buckwheat into the hot milk and cook it for 10 minutes. Add the honey, the salt and the vanilla. Grease a baking dish, and place the sliced apples in the bottom of it. Add the syrup, the butter and the nutmeg. Pour over this the buckwheat mixture, cover the dish and bake for 2 hours in a slow oven.

MAPLE WALNUT JELLO

1 package peach or orange jello
1 cup maple syrup
1 cup boiling water
1 cup walnut meats.
Dissolve jello in the boiling water. Add the maple syrup. Cool and add walnuts. Serve with whipped cream.

Ten Commandments in Sugar Conservation

1. Do not leave sugar in the bottom of tea, coffee, or cocoa cup.
2. Sweeten breakfast cereals with honey, syrup, maple sugar, raisins, or dates.
3. Substitute molasses, maple syrup, or syrups made from sorghum and corn, for part of sugar used in cooking.
4. Make your cakes without frosting. Or if you do use frosting, use the one that contains little or no sugar.
5. Use fresh, dried or preserved fruit for dessert in the place of "made dishes" that require sugar.
6. Cut down the use of candies and sweet drinks. They are luxuries, not necessities. Use fruits, nuts or popcorn if you must eat between meals. If you must have candies, choose only those made from no sugar.
7. Preserve as much of your fruit as you can by drying it in large quantities.
8. Can fruits and fruit juices without sugar. This may be successfully done by the Cold Pack Method. (See Farmers' Bulletin, No. 839, which you may read in your Public Library, or obtain by applying to the United States Department of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C.) They may be made into jellies or syrups as needed.
9. Limit the amount of jelly or preserves used. These should be limited to the needs of invalids and children. They may be made as needed from unsweetened canned fruits and juices. Use the least possible amount.

HOW TO DRY FRUITS

1. Preparation of the fruit.—Cut in two and pit peaches, apricots, and large plums; cut pears in two; peel and slice apples and quinces; small fruits are dried whole. Many fruits can be dried without further preparation but most are better in color, flavor, and keeping qualities if dipped or sulfured.

2. Dipping.—French prunes and some grapes are dipped in a boiling solution of 5 ounces of lye to 10 gallons of water for a few seconds and then rinsed. For sugar and Imperial prunes use less lye. Five ounces of lye per 10 gallons is approximately 2 teaspoonfuls per gallon.

3. Sulfuring.—The prepared fruit, placed on trays, is sulfured by covering with a tight box and burning sulfur. Apples require about 30 min., apricots and peaches 3 hours; pears and silver prunes a little longer. Dipped fruit does not require sulfuring; Adriatic figs and some grapes are sulfured.

4. Exposing to the sun.—The treated fruit is spread in thin layers on trays and exposed in a sunny place. Turning the fruit hastens drying. When finished it should be soft and leathery, neither brittle nor juicy. In very hot weather the product is better if the trays are piled one on another in "stacks" when about two-thirds dry. The final drying thus takes place in the shade.

5. Sweating.—Most fruits do not dry evenly. Sorting out and redrying the slowly drying pieces is sometimes necessary. Packing the dried fruit tightly in large boxes, bins or piles ("sweating") for some days will equalize the moisture.

6. Sterilizing and packing.—Dipping in boiling water, drying and packing in tight containers as is done with vegetables will protect the dried fruit from insects. If the fruit is very dry, drain after dipping and pack without re-drying.

Late in the season when the weather is rainy, and in localities with summer rains, fruits must be dried by artificial heat. Make a box with gable roof and large enough to hold a dozen trays and a small stove. The roof must be equipped with a large ventilator to facilitate removal of vapors. A kitchen dryer can be made of several coarse galvanized screen trays, 18x24 inches in size, suspended one above the other over the kitchen stove.

Go easy with your spoon—more than five million soldier boys are dipping from that sugar bowl.

of sugar or syrup in making them.

10. USE NO MORE THAN 1½ TO 2 OUNCES OF SUGAR PER PERSON PER DAY (3 to 4 tablespoonfuls). This includes all sugar used in cooking as well as that used at the table.

1 tablespoon of sugar weighs ½ ounce.

1 cube of sugar weighs ¼ ounce.

1½ level teaspoons of sugar weighs ¼ ounce (equal to 1 cube).

If you think this allotment of sugar small, compare it with the allotment of other countries.

We have three pounds of sugar per person per month.

The English have two pounds of sugar per person per month.

The French have one pound of sugar per person per month.

The Italians have one pound of sugar per person per month.

(When they can get it).

Substituting Honey for Part of the Sugar in the Making of Jellies

In the making of jellies, use one cup of honey and one cup of sugar to every pint of fruit.

It is necessary to boil the jelly very carefully, as the honey will have a disagreeable taste if scorched.

Jellies made in this way are rich and delicious, and have excellent keeping qualities.

PLUM BUTTER

4 quarts of plums	2 quarts of honey
-------------------	-------------------

Rub the plums through the colander. Bring them to a boil and add the honey. Boil until it crusts on top when cooked, or about 15 minutes. Stir frequently to prevent burning.

APPLE BUTTER

1 gallon apples, peeled and sliced	1 quart of honey vinegar
------------------------------------	--------------------------

1 quart of honey	1 heaping teaspoon ground cinnamon

Cook several hours, stirring often to prevent burning. If the vinegar is very strong, use part water.

PICKLED GRAPES IN HONEY

7 pounds grapes (wine grapes if possible)	1 pint vinegar
---	----------------

Cloves and other spices to taste

4 pounds honey

Pack the grapes, on the stalks, in a jar without bruising any of them. Make a syrup of the honey and vinegar with spices. Then boil the syrup, carefully skimming it for 20 minutes. While boiling hot pour over the grapes and seal up. This will keep perfectly.

M. W. MOSS AIDS RED CROSS

M. W. Moss, the popular Crown Laundry representative of Tropico, has generously donated the services of himself and auto to the salvage department of the Red Cross for each Wednesday.

Mr. Moss commenced the good work on Wednesday of this week, and reports a generous response to the department's call, as he gathered up four good loads that day.

He requests that all materials intended for delivery should be made into bundles, securely tied, and thus facilitate the work, both as to labor and time.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

On Saturday afternoon as Mr. Tom Hall and daughter, Violet, of La Canada were in their machine going north on Verdugo Boulevard towards home, they noticed the Montrose car coming on Third Street from Glendale going in the direction of Eagle Rock, and thinking that they would not be able to avoid a collision, Mr. Hall turned his machine sharply into Third Street, with the result that the machine turned over, and as it turned the machine and car smashed together.

Both the street car and the machine were damaged considerably, and the girl's hands were scratched up considerably.

Mayor James Rolph, of San Francisco, opened his campaign for Governor Wednesday night in San Diego. Beginning there, the latest gubernatorial candidate will cover every section of the State in a whirlwind drive of the old Johnson style. Three or four stops will be made each day, with a meeting each evening. On Friday, August 2nd, he will cover the San Fernando Valley, reaching Tropico and Glendale at 5 p. m.

Voters are urged by the Anti-Saloon League to register their party affiliation on or before Saturday. According to D. J. Hibben, one thousand voters in Glendale alone have failed to state their party affiliation and will therefore not be able to vote at the primaries for candidates who are pledged to support the National Dry Amendment. Registrations may be made at the Glendale City Hall, at the office of Spencer Robinson on Broadway near Glendale avenue, or at the Glendale Book Store, 413 S. Brand boulevard.

Equipping American transports with motion picture machines and operators, the Y. M. C. A. has solved the problem of the leisure time of the soldiers crossing the Atlantic Ocean to France. The full Y. M. C. A. program is carried out aboard the transports, with war work secretaries serving the men, furnishing them with writing paper and envelopes, staging entertainments and looking after their physical, moral and educational needs.

Since March, the Y. M. C. A. has provided 40,000 to 60,000 feet of film to each boat. The crew and soldiers enjoy them going over, and the wounded coming back. Only the best films are used, with Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, William S. Hart and others as the stars.

The following night, remaining in Suisnes, we were again obliged to camp in the open "because it swarmed with frank-tireurs." Such were our instructions. In reality nothing was seen of frank-tireurs, but by this method the enmity toward the people living in the towns along our line of march was maintained. The Germans practiced the theory that the soldiers fight better and are more amenable to discipline when filled with hatred of their enemies.

The next day we were obliged to march to Chalons-sur-Marne. This was one of the hardest days we ever had. From the very beginning, as we began our journey, the sun blazed down upon us. It is about 85 kilometers from Suisnes to Chalons-sur-Marne. This distance would not have been so bad, despite the heat; we had already made longer marches; but the beautiful road from Suisnes to Chalons goes with unending monotony without so much as a curve or a bend to the right or left. As far as we could see it stretched before us like a long white snake.

Many soldiers fainted or were stricken with sunstroke. They were picked up by the infirmary columns which followed. That the troops who had traversed this road before us had fared worse was evident from the many dead Germans who lay along the road. The commander feared that he could not get the machine in motion again if it was halted, and permitted to stretch its weary limbs on the ground for a brief rest. And so it crept along like a snail. Only, instead of having a snail's shell on its back, there was a leaden burden.

The monotony of the march was broken when we reached the enormous camp at Chalons. This is one of the largest of the French army camps. We saw Chalons from the distance. As we halted about an hour later outside the city in an orchard, without a single exception every man fell to the ground exhausted. The field kitchens were soon brought up, but the men were too tired to eat. We did eat later and then wanted to go to town to purchase some articles, particularly tobacco, which we missed most. Nobody was allowed to leave camp. We were told that entering the city was strictly forbidden. Chalons had paid a war contribution and therefore no one was permitted in the city.

We heard the dull sounds of the cannon in the distance and suspected that our rest would be brief. The rolling of gunfire continued to grow stronger. We did not know then that a fight had begun which was destined to become fatal to the Germans.

The first day's battle of the Marne had begun!

CHAPTER VI.

At 12 o'clock, midnight, we were alarmed and half an hour later were on the march. The cool night air felt good, and despite our weariness, we made rapid progress. Toward four o'clock in the morning we arrived at Cheppy. It had been completely plundered. We halted here for a brief rest and watched preparations being made for the execution of two franc-tireurs. They were two little farmers who had supposedly concealed a French machine gun with its crew from the Germans. The sentence was executed in such a way that the people were shown who their real rulers now were.

The little town of Pogny, located midway between Chalons-sur-Marne and Vitry-le-Francois, fared no better than Cheppy, a fact which we discovered when we entered there at nine o'clock.

We were now considerably nearer the spot where the guns were roaring, and retiring of wounded and the munition columns showed us that west of Vitry-le-Francois, a terrible battle raged. At four o'clock in the afternoon, we arrived at Vitry-le-Francois after a forced march. The city was filled with wounded, but the town itself was not damaged. The battle must have been going badly for the Germans because we were ordered into action without being given any rest. We were within three kilometers of the battle line, when we came within reach of hostile fire, a terrific hall of shells tore up every foot of ground. Thousands of corpses of German soldiers indicated at what enormous cost the Germans had brought up all available reserves. The French did everything they could to prevent the Germans from getting the reserves into action and increased the artillery fire to unheard-of violence. It seemed impossible for us to be able to break through this barrage. We saw hundreds of shells exploding every minute. We were ordered to run the gauntlet of this hell in single file.

Lying prone upon the ground, we saw how the first of our men attempted to pass. They ran unmindful of the shells bursting around them, like madmen; others were buried under ground thrown up by the high-power explosives, or torn by shrapnel or grenades. Two men had scarcely reached the line when a well-directed shot from a gun of a large caliber burst directly at their feet. When the smoke cleared, there was no trace of the men.

You can imagine the feelings of those who lay on the ground not 100 feet away witnessing this spectacle, and waiting their turn.

An officer cried: "Next!" It was my turn. As if aroused from a nightmare, I sprang up, my gun in my right hand, sidearm in my left, and ran ahead. I dodged two shells just as they burst and ran close to several others, bursting the same instant. A number of times I sprang back then ahead again, running to and fro like a madman, seeking a loophole. But everywhere there was iron and fire. I ran like a hunted animal seeking a way to pass to save myself, with a hell in front of me, and an officer's revolver always ready behind.

Throwing caution to the winds, prepared to meet death and the devil himself, I at last ran blindly ahead, ran, ran, ran, until someone seized my coat tail and shouted in my ear:

"Here we are. Are you wounded? You had better look. Perhaps you are wounded and don't know it."

I was among those of my comrades who had gotten through. Trembling all over, I stopped and looked around.

"Sit down and you will feel better," said one of the men. "We also have trembled."

Presently some wounded were brought up. There were about 48 men and a sergeant took command. Nothing was seen of our officers.

We continued to advance and passed several German batteries. Many had suffered heavily in dead and wounded, which lay around their guns destroyed by enemy fire. Other batteries still manned were useless because no more ammunition could be gotten through.

We paused to rest. Several artillermen approached us, and a noncommissioned officer asked them why they did not fire.

"Because we have used up all our ammunition," was the answer of one of the battery men.

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees met in regular session Thursday night. In the absence of the Clerk, Trustee Shaw was appointed to serve as Clerk pro tem.

PRESENT AT ROLL CALL: Jackson, Muhleman, Shaw, Woodberry.

ABSENT: Henry.

Owing to the absence of the Clerk, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was, on motion, duly adopted, dispensed with.

Under head of communications, a report was received from the Library Board submitting their budget for the current fiscal year; the same was read, and on motion of Trustee Muhleman, referred to the Committee of the whole.

Communication was read from Sam P. Stoddard tendering the use of a room on Broadway for the purposes of the Exemption Board for consideration of $5.00 per month. No action taken.

A petition signed by about eighty of the residents of Oak Drive and Ninth Street, the name of which thoroughfare it was proposed to change to Windsor Road, protesting against the change and requesting that the name be Windsor Avenue, Windsor Street or Windsor Drive, the latter preferred, was received, and, on motion, referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The City Attorney called attention to the fact that where the city ordinance provides for meeting of the Board of Equalization on the fourth Monday in July, and the same had been duly advertised, the state law provides for the meeting of the Board on the second Monday in August. In view of this fact, the meeting of the Board of Equalization will be held in accordance with the provisions of the State Law, and not on the 29th of July as advertised.

A communication was read from M. A. Rosenfeld, whose junk license had previously been cancelled by the Board of Trustees, requesting that a new license be issued him. On motion, the request was denied.

A communication was read from Mr. Montaville Flowers, inviting the attendance of the members of the Board at his lecture to be given on this date.

The City Manager presented a summary of expenditures on account of the General Budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918. The statement showed that the total expenditure for the year just ending has been $1945.95 less than the total budget appropriation.

On motion, a resolution was read and adopted, "A Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale providing for the establishment of General Budget Fund, General Reserve Fund and General Service Fund, and for discontinuing the General Fund and Lot Cleaning Fund."

On motion of Trustee Shaw, the City Clerk was instructed to advertise for sealed bids to be opened at 7:30 p. m., August 8th for certain furniture and supplies for the Fire Department. The City Manager made a brief report showing the progress in a number of matters which had been referred to him.

The Manager of the Public Service Department reported that it would be necessary to cut into some streets in Tropico District in order to repair water mains and improve the system.

On motion of Trustee Muhleman, seconded by Trustee Jackson, it was ordered that the sum of $1000.00 be transferred from the Public Service Fund to the General Fund.

Trustee Muhleman presented a resolution regarding Public Service rates, which was, on his motion, adopted.

The Manager of the Public Service Department reported the absence of Mr. Phillips on his vacation.

The City Engineer reported plans and specifications for paving of Broadway from Glendale Avenue to the East city limits with concrete, omitting 23 foot strip in the center.

"A Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale abandoning certain work in street improvement," was read, and upon be-

AT THE PALACE GRAND

The program at the Palace Grand Theatre for today, Saturday, July 27, is one of unusual interest, featuring, as it does, the world-famous story, "Tarzan of the Apes." It is a strange picture of jungle life, whose magnitude, according to the New York Tribune, cannot be realized until seen. It shows "Tarzan," maddened by the death of his ape mother, pursuing the cannibal chief who has killed her and throwing his body, after life has flown, into the alligator-infested lagoon. It also shows many other thrilling scenes. It is a tremendous sensation in eight wonderful parts, and may be seen at regular prices. There will be a children's matinee at 2:30, and evening shows at 6:45 and 8:45. Tickets are already on sale.

The bill for Sunday presents that wonderful star, Norma Talmadge, in the greatest triumph of her screen career, "De Luxe Annie." This is an adaptation from the famous Saturday Evening Post story, and is full of pep and excitement. There will also be a Smiling Billy Parsons comedy entitled "Birds of a Feather." Matinee at 2:30. Two evening shows, 6:45 and 8:45.

The wonderful Lina Cavalieri, one of the world's greatest prima donnas, and a beauty of international fame, is the star of the attraction for Monday, a vivid drama of love and thrills, "Love's Conquest." The story is based on Victorien Sardou's famous drama, "Gismonda." Bruce's wonder outdoor scenes will also be presented. The usual matinee will be given at 2:30, and evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.

Tuesday's offering is a Thomas H.

Ince production, "The Claws of the Hun," featuring Charles Ray. It is a smashing drama, in which the hero, the son of fighting fathers, was proclaimed unfit for military service. He "showed them" by starting a war of his own. There will also be a good Christie Comedy. Children's matinee at 2:30, evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.

The play for Wednesday is a very exciting melodramatic production, Wallace Reid in "Believe Me, Xantippe." A mere slip of the tongue, "Believe me, Xantippe," brought him to grips with the law that he had deftly evaded for eleven months. You can't help thrilling at it. There will also be a Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew comedy. Matinee at 2:30 and evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.
